

2013 National Crime Victims' Rights Week
Community Awareness Event

FAYETTEVILLE STATE UNIVERSITY & THE BRIAN EDDIE FOUNDATION

INVITE YOU TO JOIN US FOR OUR 2ND ANNUAL PEACE IN THE STREETS

APRIL 26TH, 2013

5 PM – 8 PM

BEGINNING AT BRONCO SQUARE AT 5 PM WITH A PEACE WALK, WITH FINAL DESTINATION AT SHAW AUDITORIUM
FOLLOWING WITH REFRESHMENTS &
A SPECIAL SCREENING from 6-8 PM

'THE FINAL GIFT'

One woman decides to meet her brother's killer...and becomes a passionate advocate for restorative justice.

A documentary film addressing universal ideas of forgiveness and redemption as well as the larger societal questions – how do we make peace with crime, support the victims, and restore the offenders?

The Final Gift follows director and producer Therese Bartholomew's seven-year pursuit to find meaning in her brother's murder – and her historic meeting with his killer in a South Carolina prison.

Restorative justice brings victims, offenders, and community members together to decide how to repair the harm caused by crime.

THIS IS A COMMUNITY EVENT, ALL ARE WELCOME & ENCOURAGED TO ATTEND. WE HOPE TO BRING AWARENESS TO THE ISSUE OF CRIME & ITS EFFECTS ON EVERYONE, ESPECIALLY THE VICTIMS. THIS EVENT IS IN HONOR OF ALL VICTIMS OF CRIME.